

It would be a crime to limit the public service that XM radio offers by way of local weather & traffic reports. These minute by minute reports are available no where else with the frequency XM radio offers!

Please do not bow to the greed of commercial radio stations!

Neal R Abron